Friends of the family will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Walter Mc. Clagherty, who has been in a San Antonio hospital for the past several weeks where she went for an operation, is progressing favorably towards recovery and is expected to return to her home today or tomorrow.
The icy breath of old boreas caused the people of Hondo to shiver Wednesday. It was the first real wintry weather we have thus far had this winter. Intermittent showers of sleet rattled on windows and roofs, but the cold did no damage to anything save hogs, many fat porkers, yielding up their lives to feed hungry humanity.

Friends among Anvil Herald readers of Mrs. Pattie Rose Hall, widow of J. G. Hall, who died some fifteen years ago at Castroville where he had taught the public school for a number of years, will be sorry to learn that the now aged lady is in the Seaton Infirmary at Austin, stricken with what will doubtless prove a fatal malady. She is receiving all the care and attention skillful physicians can give her and her two daughters, Mrs. Alex Boehme of San Antonio, and Mrs. Clarence McCashia of Austin, are with her. Endowed with the courage of the Spartan mother that she is, the moments are fraught with more anxiety for those of us who love her than they are for her. We can only await the issue; she is sure of her way.
The Hondo Lumber Company, W. H. Windrow, H. Olswanger, C. J. Bless, E. R. Leinweber Co., L. & M. Service Station and the Anvil Herald have entered into an advertising plan whereby they will give Red Seal Money for all cash purchases. This Red Seal Money will be redeemable at periodical auction sales to be announced from time to time. Read the half page announcement elsewhere—and ask for your Red Seal Money.
A stage reproduction of Jesse James in a tent theatre here one night the first of the week came too near to realism to be funny. A premature explosion of a tricky pistol powder-burned Jesse's face and called for the service of a physician. Luckily no permanent injury was done, and the bold bad, bandit will go right on with his stage-roberies—on the stage.
Alfred Schweers is a new member of the Anvil Herald reading circle. Mr. Oliver Mikesell, Sr., and Mrs. Sophia Jordan, both of San Antonio were married at the courthouse here December 10th, Judge A. M. Lamm officiating at the ceremony.

Your Smallest Expense

Look over that sheaf of bills for last month—or any month.
What did you buy that was worth as much to you or had as many uses—as telephone service?
That necessary service cost you relatively little, but the bills will show that you paid out dollars for things that were not essential to your welfare.
If telephone service should cost you many more dollars each month that service could be of no more value to you than it is. For it is indispensable.

QUIHI NOTES.

A large and appreciative audience was present last Sunday night in Blethlehem Lutheran church to hear and enjoy the monthly literary and musical program rendered by the Quihi Luther League. All the numbers on the program were fine, well rendered and demonstrated anew what young people can do if they earnestly try. To the excellent musical talent of Mrs. Henry Schuehle and the trained efforts of the church choir much credit is due for the success of the program.
 Next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'- clock English divine service will be held in the Quihi Lutheran church.
 An interesting discourse is promised relative to God's promises concerning the sending of the Saviour of the world. All are cordially invited to all and all services in this church.
 At 2 o'clock p. m. Sunday the regular bi-monthly divine service will be held in the New Fountain Lutheran church. All members and their neighbors are cordially invited to be present.
 A nice Christmas program for a Sunday school and congregational Christmas celebration at the Quihi Lutheran church is being prepared.
 Every boy and girl of this community should be present next Sunday at 9:30 and learn to sing the beautiful Christmas songs. Miss Amanda Grell will superintend the work. Contributions for Christmas bags may also be made to the S. S. teachers, the pastor or any vestryman.

We thank each and everyone of you who attended our presentation of "The Covered Wagon." We regret it very much that our theatre chairs and our piano did not arrive, but hope that you will overlook this.
 Our piano has arrived but to date, our chairs have not. We made record time on December 8, by starting at 7:30 p. m. and running ten ree's through by 9:25 p. m., with no stops to change reels as we have two machines.
 We will have a show every Tuesday, Friday and Saturday. Tonight we will show Gloria Swanson in "Zaza", which comes direct from the Empire.
 We will put this picture against any picture that has been played in Hondo, this week, "The Covered Wagon" included. This is positively a brand new picture and Don't Forget Our Prices are 10c and 15 cents.
 We appreciate the name that some friend has given us, "The Family Theatre." We really believe that our Theatre is "The Family Theatre" since the entire family can come to the show without taking a day's wages.
 We thank you,

BIG RED SEAL AUCTION

Announced for Saturday, December 20th

Go to any of these places of business shown below, and find out how to get valuable articles FREE.

W. H. WINDROW E. R. LEINWEBER CO.
C. J. BLESS L. & F. Service Station
HARRY OLSWANGER HONDO LUMBER CO.
THE HONDO ANVIL HERALD

During the coming year, there will be a lot of Free Merchandise auctioned off in Hondo, and the only money used at these auctions will be Red Seal money. Be sure to visit the above places, and learn what it is all about.

You will like it -- You will have lots of fun at these auctions.
 Get busy -- Be there and demand Red Seal money on your purchase.
 It will be a big saving to you in dollars and cents.

Watch for the Red Seal Signs at these Places

RED SEAL YEAR STARTS SATURDAY.

The Red Seal merchants of Hondo will start the Red Seal year with a big public auction at three o'clock Saturday of next week. At this auction many valuable articles of merchandise out of their stock will be auctioned off to the highest bidder, the amount bid to be paid in Red Seal Money that is now being given by our Red Seal merchants on all purchases made at their stores.
 This auction is the forerunner of many interesting events that will be held in Hondo during the year by Red Seal merchants. A public auction will be held each week at one of the stores of the Red Seal merchants.
 Once each month during the year special events will be held; a Boy's Stunt Day, a Beauty Contest and a big Balloon Ascension will be some of the events staged in the near future. The purpose of these events is to bring all the people together frequently, to have our neighboring friends visit us, all of which will make Hondo a better place in which to live and do business.
 At the auction Saturday articles for each member of the family will be put up for auction—silk hose for the ladies, shirts for the men and something for the girls and boys.
 Food for the table, something for your car, something for the farm, in fact, something for everyone. All to be sold to the highest bidder for Red Seal money only.
 Naturally, the one who gets the most valuable article will be the one who has the most Red Seal money and any Red Seal merchant will start you off by giving you a Red Seal dollar bill; you can get one now, that is, if you haven't already got one, by calling on any Red Seal merchant.
 The main idea is to have plenty of Red Seal money on hand Saturday so that you can get the article you want most when it's put up for auction. Don't forget the date—next Saturday afternoon at three o'clock.

HOW TO SPEND RED SEAL MONEY.

Red Seal Money will be given at all the Red Seal Stores on all cash purchases, and on all accounts if paid when due. Whatever the amount of your purchase, you will receive a like amount of Red Seal Money. For instance—if your purchase amounts to $1.00 you will receive a Red Seal $1.00 bill; if it amounts to $1.25 you will receive a $1.00 bill and a 25 cent bill, etc.

AUCTION SALES

The Red Seal Stores will hold Auction Sales at regular intervals throughout the coming year, and the articles to be sold will include all kinds of merchandise. There will be something at every sale that you will want; something to eat; something to wear; something for your home or your automobile. And you pay for these articles with Red Seal Money ONLY. The Auction Sales are just like the old-time country sales. The highest bidder gets the article and pays for it with Red Seal Money.
 Save all the Red Seal Money you can get for it will mean a lot in dollars and cents before the year is over.
 When you make a purchase at a Red Seal Store, or when you pay your bill, be sure to get that amount of Red Seal Money. Then wait for the next Auction Sale and bid in the best article you can or hold on to it until you get more and bid at the next Sale.

IMPORTANT.

Be present at all of the Red Seal
 Auction Sales.
 Bring along all the Red Seal Money you have, and borrow some if you can. Ask for Red Seal Money every time you make a purchase and save it. If you don't buy anything at the first Auction Sale, save your money for the next time. Any Red Seal Merchant will tell you when the next sale will be.
 A Red Seal Merchant's family or employees cannot pay for any article with Red Seal Money issued by their store.

WHAT WHISTLES MEAN.

Explained by Southern Pacific Passenger Traffic Department.

For the benefit of the curious the Southern Pacific Lines tells what the locomotive means when it says "toot! toot!"

Four blasts, two of medium length and two short is a warning that the locomotive is approaching a public grade crossing and is the engineer's way of saying "Look out, I'm coming."

One short, sharp whistle means that the hand brakes are needed to help the engineer stop. With modern air-brake equipment this signal has become practically obsolete.

A succession of short blasts tells pedestrians, wandering stock and other trespassers to get off the track.

One long blast followed by three short ones, and the rear flagman walks back along the track to protect against a following train.

Four or five blasts of medium duration calls the flagman to the train.

Four short whistles is the engineer's way of asking for train order signal.

Two short whistles mean "Thank You" or "I get you."

One whistle of medium duration followed by two short blasts calls attention to signals displayed for a following section.

One long blast is given when train is approaching station, junctions, draw-bridges and railroad crossings at grade.

Two short blasts given three times is signal to trainmen that airbrakes are sticking.

To be able to record human speech as rapidly as it is spoken represents one of the greatest achievements of the age. Stenography covers a universal field as it is absolutely necessary and is used in every business office, in every professional office, in all state and governmental offices, in all court rooms, in gathering the news of the great daily papers, in recording the speeches of our statesmen, etc. The demand for stenographers is never satisfied and no other field of endeavor offers opportunities for rapid promotion as does stenography.

Practically every one receiving this paper knows the enviable reputation of Combination Shorthand. They know that it is learned in less than half the time of other systems by other authors, that its speed is practically unlimited, that it is written and read with absolute ease. It is pronounced the "last word in shorthand."

The U. S. Government wants steno-typists at salaries $1320 a year and up. Monthly examinations are held at the Federal Building in San Antonio. Byrne System Shorthand and Typewriting offer the shortest and quickest way to these fine positions.

Because you may never expect to keep books is no reason you should not take bookkeeping. Many think bookkeeping is only to make bookkeepers, but not so; it is a training that every young person should have. The course we give constitutes the very foundation on which to build a career; whether to be business, professional farming or housekeeping. It is necessary to success, always and everywhere. Those who have wealth need it to enable them to take care of it, those who have nothing need a business training to enable them to earn and accumulate something. Everyone is involved in commercial affairs to a greater or less extent, and if you are not prepared to handle your own affairs at the mercy of the other fellow. The trained person occupies a place of advantage, always.

CHAPLIN'S WEDDING DAY AT EMPALME GIVEN IN CLOSE-UP.

Magistrate Routed from Bed at 6:10 a. m. to Perform Ceremony That Unites Film Comedian and Leading Woman.

By Mrs. Russell Blocker Myers.

Situated down on the Gulf of California there is a small seaport which brings into view the old days of Mexico, when ships and burros were the fast freights of distribution, but which lost its fame when the railroad gradually pushed its way forward into this, the Yaqui Indian territory. It is a place and district that has been the center of the Yaqui raids, and the old adobe remains are the only relics of past thriving villages. It is called Guaymas, the lazy little port which basks in by no means the subdued light of old Sol.

It might be termed the devil's an-teroom during the summer months, while in the winter months a paradise for climate. It is a city of 8000 im-habitants, and has on its list of important residents of yore the revolutionary chieftain, De la Huerta, President-elect Calles and President Obregon, who as a boy made it his vacation grounds.

ROMANTIC SETTING.

Sonora is the reflection of old Spanish love and romance, and now it has an American hero and heroine blended in with the old settings.
Guaymas was chosen as the background by the famous movie comedian Charlie Spencer Chaplin, when he arrived here last October 13, 1924 accompanied by Miss Lita Grey, his leading lady, and her mother, Mrs.
Lillian Spicer, or Murray, ostensibly to spend a few days in rest or to make a few pictures of the rugged coasts, but the underground wireless had the news only a few hours after their arrival and it was with much difficulty that the comedian kept from the limelight on the greedy eyes of the peons, who worship him above all famous actors.

REBUFF SUSPECTED.

He spent the day in Guaymas interviewing the old civil judge who presides over marriages and keeps the record of births and deaths of the Guaymas population. That good old gentleman, a daddy and strong supporter of one, and only one, man for every woman in a lifetime, apparently did not agree with Charlie's proposals, for in the afternoon of the same day he left for Empalme, Sonora, the headquarters of the Southern Pacific de Mexico, and there found a member of the legal force who was willing to put him back in the ranks of married men with Miss Lita Grey for espouse.

DIVORCE COPY ASKED.

It later developed that the judge at Guaymas demanded to know if either had been married, whether they had a divorce and if so to file a copy thereof properly legalized by the Mexican Consul, etc., and that he would not keep it any more a secret than any other marriage, or official act, that he might perform. Charlie did not care to go through the red tape demanded of him nor to reveal his desires to the public, but he could not overcome the obstinate judge.

Not downed by one refusal, Charlie immediately left for Empalme where, after a hasty conference with several residents of that place, among them a local policeman, made what is called in Spanish, "presen-tacion," in other words Charlie and Miss Grey were presented, which is the law of the land. Two witnesses namely, Francisco Esqueda, and Paul Ramirez for Charlie, and Angel Murillo and Francisco Monge for Miss Grey.

BANNS POSTED.

After all had duly signed the marriage application book, a copy was made thereof and placed on the blackboard of the judge's office where it remained for a period of eighteen days. If in that time no one had cause to offer objection to this contemplated union, then forever to remain silent; which was apparently the case with Chaplin and Miss Grey, for on November 21, Miss Grey and her mother and grandmother, with a party of four gentlemen friends and members of Chaplin's company arrived in Guaymas, registering at the Hotel Albin there to await the arrival of Charlie the following morning.

MEET AT 4 A. M.

The train arrived at 2:30 in the morning from Nogales. Chaplin remained in the drawing room of the Pullman until 4. Miss Grey and party joined him at that hour and they proceeded in automobiles to Em-palme, a distance of six miles, where they ousted the judge, Don Antonio Haro, from his early morning sleep.
At 6:10 they were married in true Mexican custom, with exception that an interpreter was needed to explain the various laws and questions asked by the judge—Mexican law requiring that the judge read the law relating to marriages to the couple, and to explain the seriousness of the contract they are entering into.

RETURN TO GUAYMAS.

After both had attached their signatures to the register and the witnesses had signed as having been present and the judge had written "doy fe" at the end, they re-entered the waiting automobiles and returned over a bumpy road to Guaymas, arriving there about seven-thirty.

Chaplin left the car just prior to reaching the center of the town, or about six blocks from the Hotel Albin and walked to the hotel. The ladies proceeded in the automobile, thus carrying out a nicely laid scheme to dodge all press reporters that might present themselves on the scene. Here he dined with gentlemen friends accompanying the party, while the ladies immediately went to their rooms.

SEPARATE ON RETURN.

In the afternoon the party hired launches and went out to the caves where the Guaymas population holds its oyster bakes, etc. There a few views were taken for the picture now being made to be known as the "Gold Rush."

At six, the party returned to the Hotel Albin, where quick arrangements were made for departure to the United States, a private car of the S. P. of M. having been chartered to take the party as far as the border.

Lita and her mother and grandmother remained in the parlor of the hotel for an hour laughing and talking with the American Consul and the proprietor of the hotel, but Charlie was not to be seen. He went to his room immediately and apparently remained there till they went to the station.

Lita did not pose for any views.
Such pictures as were needed of the coast and beach line were taken. All in all the people of Guaymas did not have much of an opportunity to view the important strangers. Just now and then in separated lots would they catch a view of them.

At seven-thirty they left for the border, glad to go as Lita stated to the writer.

Guaymas feels that it is again back on the map, and that it will soon become popular as a marriage center.
So popular a man must surely set a precedent for some one.

The foregoing, taken from the November 30th issue of the Los Angeles Examiner, was written by a former Hondo girl (Miss Jessie Blocker) now married and living in Los Angeles.
Mrs. Myers' first training in journalism was secured on the Hualjillo Leaf, the Hondo High School paper, while she was a student in High School here.

WHAT GERALDINE PREWITT DID

She was but 17, from the little town of Richardson, right here in Texas. She determined to become a stenotypist. Lack of money nor hard times did not deter her, for she knew of the pleasant work with big pay for a sten. So she found a way. She entered the Byrne School in Dallas; studied hard, and BROKE WORLD'S RECORD.

Miss Prewitt in 20 days study of Byrne Shorthand, wrote 154 words of new unfamiliar matter a minute for 5 consecutive minutes, and transcribed it accurately. She well earned front page mention with photo in a leading San Antonio daily of November 24th, 1924. The previous record for speed in learning and writing was held by H. L. Kendrick of Haynesville, La., who after 22 days study wrote 150 words a minute.
No other system of shorthand can boast of such accomplishments.
Learn Byrne and learn the best. No little credit is due Prof. L. S. Rather, now of the San Antonio Commercial College, one of Miss Prewitt's instructors, for her high honors.

$100 IN GOLD FOR YOU.

This College offers a reward of $100 in gold to any person who can beat the record of Miss Prewitt.
We believe it can be done. We want a S. A. C. C. student to have this honor. This in addition to the generous Holiday Cut Rate offer. Read it.

TERMS of half down, balance in 30 and 60 days may be arranged with low rate board and room. Yet should you prefer our "Pay after Graduation and Position is Secured" plan, we will be pleased to hear from you.
Opportunity is at hand. Will you grasp it?

For some reason, the report failed to get in to the reporter last week concerning the Biry fair. From all reports of people who were there it was the greatest event of the season. All schools that entered proved well their colors and in displaying their school work. Biry was well equipped with playground equipment.

Games, such as volley ball, basket ball and tennis, were played by the visiting teams.

Also a speech made by Mr. W. N. Saathoff was very much enjoyed by all present.

The schools' exhibits were very interesting.

Dunlay school carried away first prize, Biry second, and Black Creek third. In the evening every one departed for their homes well pleased.
